Wendy's Frosty

OH SHIT

Ingredients

- 1 can (14 ounces) sweetened condensed milk
- 2 quarts chocolate milk
- 1/4 cup cocoa powder
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 carton (8 ounces) Cool Whip, thawed

Directions

1. Whisk the milks
 - In a large bowl, whisk together the sweetened condensed milk and chocolate milk. Sift in the cocoa powder and stir to combine. Then, stir in the vanilla extract.
2. Fold in the Cool Whip
 - Use a rubber spatula to fold in the Cool Whip. Stir to thoroughly combine the ingredients.
3. Freeze the mixture
 - Pour the mixture into your ice cream maker and follow the manufacturer's instructions to freeze into ice cream. (Depending on your ice cream maker, it should take about 15 to 20 minutes to reach the right consistency.)
 - How to make a Frosty without an ice cream machine: Pour the mixture into a freezer-safe container (either a large bowl or individual containers) and freeze for up to two hours, stirring every 30 minutes, or until it reaches your desired consistency.

“ Editor's Tip: Depending on the size of your ice cream maker, you may need to do this step in several batches. If you'd prefer to make one batch at a time, the leftover Frosty mixture can be refrigerated for up to one week before freezing in the ice cream maker.

4. Serve

- Once it's frozen, spoon the Frosty into a glass and serve immediately with a spoon, straw or both. Next, we're tempted to recreate the discontinued Coffee Toffee Frosty and grill up some square burgers, too!
